Frank Slide Anniversary Set For April 28th

Sunday, April 28th was selected as the date for services and programs to mark the 60th anniversary of the Frank Slide.

The gigantic slide occurred when tons of rock fell from the face of Turtle Mountain and buried the little mining village of Frank on April 29, 1903.

Decision to mark the anniversary on the Sunday rather than the actual date which is on a Monday this year, was made at a meeting held in the Frank school.

Present were residents of the village of Frank and other interested persons from throughout the Crows Nest Pass.

Committees were formed to draw up plans for the day-long program which will include a guided bus tour through the Frank Slide area via the old road. A local speaker will give the history of the area at all interesting points along the tour.

Memorial graveside services are to be held with all denominations from the Pass asked to participate. Arrangements are to be made to contact Dr. W. Young of Edmonton, former United Church minister at Blairmore and Frank in early days to attend. Plans also include the possibility of having an international food fair similar to one held in Blairmore on the town's fiftieth anniversary.

First event of the day will be a parade, to form at the Frank school grounds, and march to the graveside services.

The RCMP, Scouts, Cubs, the RCME and band will be asked to lead the parade. Announcement of further plans will be made as they are completed.

Mayor Ramsay Gives Statement

Mayor John Ramsay of Coleman has issued the following statement to The Journal this week on behalf of the town council:

"With regard to the recent resignation of Fire Chief Henry Zak, jr., and Volunteer Brigade members, we, the council wish to state that Mr. Zak came and asked for recognition, stating that it was not a matter of money. The committee took this up and came back with the offer to the Chief of $200.00 per year flat, which did not obligate him to attend all practices or all fires.

This offer was turned down by the Chief and the committee offered him all of the money paid for practices and fires plus $100.00 extra per year, plus $50.00 for the Assistant Fire Chief, as council felt this would provide recognition for the Chief and his assistants. The answer to this proposal was Mr. Zak's resignation plus the resignation of the entire fire brigade.

"The committee recommended that we accept with regret the Fire Chief's resignation, thanking him for past services. The committee at this meeting also recommended to accept the resignation of the entire brigade. These recommendations were endorsed by the whole council.

"At no time were monies mentioned for firemen until after resignations were accepted by council at which time payments were mentioned to the committee. The council felt they had no alternative but to accept the resignation as no specific reasons were given by the Fire Chief or the men.

"Rates for the Brigade members are as follows: Fire Calls, $2.00 for the first hour; $1.25 for each additional hour; $2.00 per practice (52 practices per year). The brigade had an average strength of 15 men."

Fire Brigade Receive Award

The former Coleman Volunteer Fire Brigade have this month received a Certificate of Merit from the National Fire Prevention Association for work the Coleman Volunteer Fire Brigade did during last fall's Fire Prevention Week. The Certificate was issued from the offices of the Provincial Fire Commissioner and signed by Austin Bridges, Fire Commissioner for Alberta.

Alberta Forestry Lecture Tour

Through the courtesy of Mr. Dobek, we played host Friday, March 15th, in the local theatre to 341 pupils of Central School under Mr. H. Allen who introduced us to our young audience. Due to the large number and the limited seating capacity, two meetings were held. We observed many of the older pupils making notes of our talks. Teachers and children alike, made a point of thanking us and asking that we return. At the end of the second meeting, the children were dismissed from the theatre and this left the teachers present free to group around us as we packed up. The Alberta Forestry Association was complimentary time and again. The closeness with which our program follows or anticipates school curricula was remarked upon repeatedly. Above all, the most rewarding experience for your conductor is to hear these qualified personnel state in no uncertain terms that the Forestry Programs are looked upon as part and parcel of the educational syllabus.

This afternoon we drove over to the Cameron Elementary School and greeted an old friend of the Association's, Miss Dunlop. Although we actually held two meetings, the very young grades of 1 to 3 sat through both of them. We felt quite "at home" with Teachers and pupils greeting us with genuine warmth and enthusiasm. Questions to the boys and girls brought back quick and accurate answers. We were kept occupied until bus time and all enjoyed the afternoon. Miss Dunlop asked that we be sure and include her school next year.

The Canadian Red Cross Enquiry Bureau handled requests from 30 countries last year, and replied to over 6,500 enquiries.

Dr. Kindt Retains Ottawa Seat

Dr. Lawrence E. Kindt of the Progressive Conservative party topped the polls in the Macleod Riding by retelling 9,722 votes to increase his hold on the Macleod Constituency. Runner up in the election was Ernie Patterson for the Social Credit who came in with 7,727 votes and showed an increase of 864 votes over his last years totals. Liberal Candidate Dr. Bostrom polled 2,693 votes and J. Griffin C.C.F. polled a total of 1,126 votes. Standings in the Pass district are as follows:

Two Die as Result Of Highway Accident

Two Crows Nest Pass young people, Carl M. Cerney, Frank, and Glynys Hruby of Maple Leaf, lost their lives in a two-car collision on the No. 3 Highway shortly after 7:00 p.m. on Saturday evening, April 6. Carl Cerney, 22, driver of one vehicle was killed instantly and Miss Hruby, 16 years of age, died in the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital about 4:30 a.m. on Sunday morning.

Two other passengers in the Cerney car, besides Miss Hruby, also sustained serious extensive injuries. Bob Bobrosky, 20, of Blairmore, was rushed by Hall's Ambulance to Calgary, late Saturday night to be treated for very serious head injuries, and Marilyn Gryshuk, 18, of Hillcrest, was taken to the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital, where she is being treated for numerous cuts, lacerations and shock.

Driver of the other car, Douglas Bailey, 29, also of Blairmore, was taken to the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital, with serious injuries. Both vehicles were demolished.

The Cerney car was proceeding in a westerly direction and the Bailey car was proceeding east when the almost head-on collision occurred. Ambulance and station wagons were used to remove the dead and injured to hospital.

The Bailey car was on its roof in the centre of the highway, and had to be pushed over on its wheels to get the driver out.

The accident happened about a quarter mile west of Bellevue. The Cerney car, with its occupants, was proceeding to the Fernie drive-in theatre, when the accident occurred, and the Bailey vehicle was enroute to Lethbridge.

RCMP Police of the Blairmore detachment are investigating the accident, and Coroner F. S. Radford stated an inquest will be held but date has not yet been set. Mr. Cerney, 22 years of age, was born in Frank on April 20, 1940, and is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cerney of Frank. He was employed as a driver for the Pass Dairy.

Miss Hruby, 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hruby, Jr., of Bellevue. She was born in Bellevue on April 17, 1947. She is survived by three sisters, Donna 13, Wendy 5 and Theresa 2, and by one brother, Ronnie, 8.

Coleman Ex-chief Clarifies Stand

In connection with the recent resignations of members of the Coleman volunteer fire brigade, the following statement was given by former fire chief, Henry Zak, jr.:

"After many requests to make statements as to why myself and the fire brigade resigned, I will give the citizens of Coleman a few facts.

"I tried to bring Brigade on par with adjacent brigades for myself and assistants, but the council, on February 12 decided to offer approximately half of what an adjacent town brigade was getting, to which I told two of the council's fire committee I was going to resign, as I thought we should be on a par and that the boys should be brought up to par also.

On February 26 I sent in my resignation effective March 31st, and the whole brigade decided to send in theirs if mine was accepted. On March 14th I received a letter, as did the brigade, stating our resignations were accepted with regret.

Although our resignations were accepted we did try to rectify the situation so we had a meeting March 17th at which we met with two members of the fire committee. After quite a discussion we decided to meet again on March 18th.

At this meeting we asked council to go back to the regular council meeting of March 28th and asked council to reconsider the motion to accept our resignation and reinstate the brigade.

Then if this was accepted we would then negotiate and if it took longer than March 31st, we, the brigade, would still be on call until things were settled. But on March 27th, the day after council met, I received a letter as did the brigade, stating council confirmed the acceptance of my resignation and the brigade's, and that the committee was instructed to reorganize the brigade.

A total of 200 cast their ballots today resulting in 54% in favor and 46% against the Money By Law. The required majority needed was 66% to pass the by-law.

Old Age Pensioners Push For Home In Pass

Main item on the agenda of the Coleman Old Age Pensioners' Association meeting held Monday, April 1st was a lengthy discussion on the dire need for an old people's home in the Crows Nest Pass area, similar to the Crestview Lodge in Pincher Creek.

It was pointed out that there were some 10,000 people in this Pass area and that from such a population a home here would be readily filled to capacity.

A petition is being circulated for names to try and promote such a home for the area. Movements are also underway in Blairmore and the Hillcrest-Bellevue districts pushing strong for an old people's home.

During the meeting the new slate of officers was installed to office. President, Mrs. G. Horn; vice-president, Mrs. Joe Dick and secretary, Mrs. L. Bouthillier and the executive were installed.

A program of entertainment — comprising vocal solos by Judy Coover, Mrs. Albert Krywolt and pianoforte selections by Ken Murdoch and Miss Lorraine Petusk, were much enjoyed. Accompanist was Mrs. Isabel Spivak.

A short Curling Skit was also presented by Miss Judy Coover and Maureen McDonald, after which the bean guessing contest was won by Adam Hamner.

Bunny Bonspiel Easter Weekend

Elmer C. Wallace of the Blairmore Curling Club has announced that 74 entries have now been received for the Annual Blairmore Curling Club Easter Weekend in the Blairmore Arena on the Easter weekend. A total of 88 rinks are to be accepted into the affair and out of town rinks planning on taking part in the affair should send in their applications without delay as the first entries received will be accepted until the full number is obtained. The annualspiel that draws rinks from all over Western Canada will again feature five events and there will be over $2,000.00 in prizes with four prizes in each event. The prizes are on display in Thornton's Hardware Store in Blairmore. A banquet is also being planned for the curlers and will again be held in the Elks Hall from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

A concession booth will also be operated in the arena for the convenience of the curlers.

UMWA Provides Hall For Teen-town

The Union are providing the Union hall once a week for the young people free of charge, and if a dance is held a nominal charge will be made.

Fire Protection Is Arranged

Mayor John Ramsay of Coleman announced this week that the town has now arranged for a standby fire brigade to protect the property of the people of Coleman.

Meanwhile the town is inviting applications for members to form a new Coleman Fire Brigade.

Car/Ready For Summer Driving?

Think your car is all set for summer driving? ... Maybe it is. But then again, maybe it isn't, if results of a massive 13,000 car survey in 400 U.S. and Canadian cities are any indication.

Conducted by automobile service experts on cars picked at random as owners pulled in for gasoline, the gigantic test revealed without much doubt that Mr. Average Motorist does not have his car properly prepared for warm weather driving.

Two out of three car owners, for example, did not have their cars' cooling systems serviced before hot weather set in. Six out of ten did not have their cars tuned up last spring.

If, at this point, you're asking yourself whether these services are really essential, better read on: The survey also revealed some interesting information about what happens when vital maintenance services are ignored.

For example, one out of ten motorists who did not bother to have their cars' cooling systems serviced last spring found themselves boiling over on the expressways and in traffic tie-ups with over-heated engines.

In the spring tune-up department, even more startling things happened. For example, when checked during the summer months, three out of five motorists had spark plugs that were worn, while one out of every three had faulty ignition systems in their cars.

Either or both of these factors can waste gasoline. Test results, for example, show that 85 per cent of cars with 10,000 miles on the plugs will show some improvement in gas mileage, with 10 per cent recording two miles more per gallon when new plugs were installed.

This savings in many cases can amount to enough to more than pay for the cost of the tune-up.

Other things you may wish to have checked on your car this spring — and which the survey showed were neglected by many car owners — are:

1. Fan belt—35 per cent of the cars checked had worn fan belts. A broken fan belt may strand you when you least expect it with an overheated engine. Don't take a chance. Your service station or garageman can check the fan belt on your car in minutes, and may save you from burning out an engine.

2. Ignition timing — A whopping 70 per cent of cars checked last summer were out of time, which can cause poor gas mileage and loss of power. Your mechanic can quickly correct this condition while performing a routine tune-up, which is inexpensive and can pay for itself in fuel savings.

3. Exhaust system — Chances of having a leak, where dangerous carbon monoxide fumes can escape are one in four, according to the survey. Have your dealer check the entire exhaust system on your car next time he has it on his grease rack for a lube job.

One thing the survey didn't show is why people will invest a small fortune in an automobile, then neglect it to the point where simple routine maintenance operations become major repairs and overhauls.

Probable reason for this is that performance loss occurs so gradually that it goes unnoticed by the average motorist until it reaches the point where more than simple tune-up is needed to remedy the situation.

Better let your mechanic check your car now, before little things become big ones.

Letter to the Editor

To The Taxpayers Members of the Town Council and the Mayor:

This has to me been the sorriest day of my life. Why? Because it is the day that the Coleman Fire Brigade has been forced to resign.

Our Fire Chief requested of the Town Council that the Brigade be brought up on par with other Brigades in the Pass. On failure of the Town Council to do this he gave his resignation to the Council. On being informed of this we, as a body, also tendered our resignations.

What has the Town lost? Every man on the Brigade is reliable. Every man on the Brigade has the ability to make a decision and act on it. Each man on the Brigade is capable of taking orders and carrying them out.

In the nine years that I personally have been affiliated with the Fire Brigade in Coleman, Fernie and on the DEW Line, the Coleman Brigade, in my estimation, is the best.

For myself I was instructing on Fire Prevention on the DEW Line. I was capable of handling this job only through training on the Coleman Brigade.

For the past four months I have been on the Brigade as a spare man, as a regular man is on holiday. But I have never served or worked with more honest or sincere men anywhere.

To the new Brigade, should it be formed, good luck and best of wishes. For myself I shall not become part of it.

Yours truly,
 MEL TAJE.

"I'm proud to be an ALBERTAN"

"Proud to live in a province where individual rights are respected, and individual initiative is encouraged. A province where people still have the faith in themselves that made our first pioneers the men and women they were. 'Creeping socialism' would have received short shrift from them, and that goes for me and my neighbours today!"

Alberta's electrical resources, like her farms and other businesses, were developed by individuals with faith in themselves and faith in the future. They took risks ... and the risks were great ... because they believed in a land that fostered individual effort.

This rugged individualism is still very much alive in the spirit of modern Alberta. We believe that most Albertans intend to keep it alive in this province of ours!

Ice Show Successful

Mayor William Jallep of Blairmore extended a welcome to over 1,200 persons in the Blairmore arena on Friday evening, March 29th and officially opened the Ice Carnival featuring Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs put on by the Crows Nest Pass Figure Skating Club.

Mayor Jallep mentioned the fact that this was the largest audience ever to gather in the arena and that he was exceptionally pleased that so many enthusiasts showed up to support the 65 young people ranging in age from 3½ to 16 years of age. He commended the Arena Association, the Figure Skating Club and its fine Auxiliary and also Club Instructress, Mrs. Geraldine Harvey for having worked so hard to produce the fine show that was about to be presented.

The hour long show was then presented by the young people in splendid costumes who went through their routines in expert fashion. A few of the tiny tots produced unexpected comedy antics when left behind by some of their elder and more superior skaters. Highlights of the show spotlighted by Stu Murdoch and Tony Vejprava who handled the colored spot lights to add to the show. The music and recordings were ably handled by Mac Dunn and Mrs. Ann Wilmut while the narration for the affair was given by Mrs. Hazel Connelly. The staging and scenery was handled by Charles Amatoo and Donald Shannon assisted by Mrs. Connelly and Mrs. Margaret Avoledo. In charge of the make up and hair styling were Phyl Perry, Isabelle Sellon, drama Students, Dot Schilling, Kay Kerr, Demaris Finn and Sharon

Patton.

"Bill" Harper of Bellevue acted as master of ceremonies for the evening and ably introduced the artists as well as the Crows Nest Pass Band, under direction of Frank Edl who provided music for the interludes.

After a fifteen minute intermission the second portion of the show featured guest soloists Donald Boyce of Calgary who after presented several solos skated with club professional Gerry Turbis. Second item of the program was the trumpet Cha Cha presented by little Miss Debra Loyer and Wesley Kadonaga, who both received heavy applause.

Splendid solo and dance numbers were then presented by Eileen Serec and Don McElchie of Fernie, B.C., who are both former Ice Capades skaters and who also received encore applause for their excellent skating.

On conclusion of the show, Mrs. Turbis called on Wesley Kadonaga and presented him with a fine award for being the most outstanding skater of the club. Mrs. Turbis, Mrs. Connelly and Mr. Boyce and Eileen Serec and Don McElchie were called upon and were presented with gifts of appreciation for having contributed so much to make the Ice Carnival the total success it proved itself.

OF MANY THINGS

Sixty-Mile Hike

A couple of disc jockeys, at radio station CKRC, Winnipeg, all for the fun of it, started a 60-mile all-night walkathon from Portage La Prairie to the parliament buildings in Winnipeg.

Several Manitobans joined in the walk. Four of them made it, and looked remarkably fresh in spite of the fact that they had done their trudging in sub-zero weather that had chilled my bones during the fifteen minutes my wife and I stood outside our car to await the arrival.

I went down to the parliament buildings quite cynical about the whole thing. When I saw those young lads marching up to the waiting crowds, my cynicism changed to admiration. One lad, in his teens, had done a full day's work and gone straight from his job into the walk, and was still able to joke about it. Westerners are still pretty tough. If the new generation is going to fat and flab, as some of our critics claim, then it is mighty energetic fat and flab.

A certain amount of credit must be given to the new kinds of clothing we have today. The RCAF and the textile people who have done so much research to develop fabrics which are light but warm, would have been proud of the payoff it provided for these youngsters. No wonder the Eskimos are beginning to look with envy on the light, warm clothing of their fellow Canadians who brave the North.

But when all is said and done, the young men themselves deserve the credit. Tough wills as well as tough muscles kept those legs moving. That, and the challenge such a hike offered, for it was purely for fun and not for money.

I'm glad I went over to the parliament buildings to watch their arrival. I got a bit chilly, and I was tired from standing fifteen minutes on my sedentary legs; but I went away with a lot more faith in the sturdy character of Canadian youth.
